Declarations and closing notes

This preliminary report is issued for information only. It is not a commitment to insure and it does not state the complete condition of title as of the effective date. Coverage, if issued, will be governed by the policy form actually delivered, the schedules attached to it, and the exceptions stated in it.

All requirements and exceptions shown above are subject to change up to the date of policy. Buyers and lenders should order their own policies and should not rely on this report alone. Records reviewed are those made available to the examiner through the effective date shown on the cover.
